

Town of Lancaster Parks & Recreation

Fall Winter Basketball Article

March 25, 2013

Girls Bantam League All Star Game

East 40 vs West 32

The Girks Bantam League held the first inaugural All Star Game at Como Park Elementary School Gym in Lancaster. The East and West teams battled throughout the highly contested game. The Eats used a six to zero run in the closing minutes of game to prevail with the 40 to 32 victory. The East All Stars were led by the scoring duo of Stephanie Herrnreiter and Madison Maciag scoring 16 points and 12 points respectively. Hope Harrington scored six key points. Madison Handley contributed with four points. Mattea Gill chipped in with two points. The West All Stars were led by a balance scoring attack with nine different players tallying the score sheet. Kathryn Weidman scored eight points. Claudia Frys and Abbie Benham tallied six points apiece. Brooke Bauer got into the scoring act with four points. Erica Kurek, Cassidy Kavathas and Rebecca Au added two points each. Ally Miklas and Allie Bashor chipped in with one point apiece.

Boys Midget Conference Championship Game

Grizzlies 24 vs Braves 23

The Grizzlies and Braves played a highly contested matchup for the Championship in the Boys Midget Conference. The game was close throughout. The Grizzlies and Braves exchanged leads numerous times in the first half. The Grizzlies used tough team defense and key baskets down the stretch to claim the victory over the Braves 24 to 23. Conor Mahony led the scoring for the Grizzlies scoring seven points. Matthew Jandzinski netted six points. Playoff MVP Jacob Andolina contributed with four key points. Collin Rice added four points. Jacob Sebastian chipped in with three points for the Grizzlies. Owen Adamec kept the Braves close scoring 12 points. Gianluca Fulciniti added five points. Dominic Fulciniti, Jacob Kaska and Nicholas Weldon each scored two points in the heart breaking loss.

Boys Midget Conference Consolation Game

Blazers 36 vs Thunder 35

The Blazers and Thunder battled for third place. The Blazers built a six point halftime lead. The Thunder fought back in the 2nd half only to fall short. The Blazers claimed third place overall with a 36 to 35 victory. The Blazers were lead by Aiden Zerkowski and his 10 points. Justin Hughes, Henry Hansen and Andrew Martin all scored eight points apiece. Brandon Kostek threw in two points. Seven different players scored for the Thunder. Jason Mansell had eight points. Joshua Jelonek tallied five points. Jacob Elias and Cory Pachorkowski each scored four points. Johnny Peresan , Andrew Molino and Maxwell Molino added two points apiece.

Sixers 67 Hawks 41

The second round of playoffs saw a rare feat as the Sixers trounced the Hawks 67-41. The Sixers continue their domination, in large part, due to the post play of regular season MVP, Joe Biniaszewski. Biniaszewski came close to the playoff record as he put in 56 points in the victory. Mason Benz put in 6 points. Jeff Krankowiak had 3 points. For the Hawks, Zach Penska led the way with 17 points. All in the first half. Jacob Jerebko was also in double digits with 12 points. Glenn Stever, Doug Norton, and Kyle Backert each had 4 points in the losing effort.

Magic 41 Wolves 39

The second game of the 2nd round of playoffs turned out to be a classic match up that came down to the last minute. The Magic pulled off another upset as the 6th seed defeated the 2nd seed Wolves, 41-39. The Wolves put together a furious rally in the 2nd half behind Kevin Walter's 11 2nd half points (15 total). However, the hero of this game was Tim Molik (9 points) as he went 5 for 6 from the line in the final minute to keep the Magic ahead. Josh Schaner led all scorers with 16 points. Brett Kaska was also in double digits with 10. For the Wolves, Joe Barbaro had 10 points while Connor Fuller finished with 8 points.